Balipara is an haven of hospitality, where one is spoilt rather by a wonderful staff, who go out of their way to make you feel at home.
And 'home' is what Balipara is all about. - traditions of a bygone area are mixed with modern at excellent service. Thank you Radika & Ranga for creating this paradise that the N.I.E. so desperately needs. My only concern is... that I will never be able to get a room... ?!
